DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.

This application contains the following inventions or groups of inventions which are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

To have a general inventive concept under PCT rule 13.1, the inventions need to be linked by a special technical feature. The special technical feature that appears to link the claims is an antibody to G3BP that binds residues 1-144 of G3BP. References, Parker et al (Molecular and Cellular Biology 16:2561-69, 1996, IDS #8) teach the amino acid sequence of the G3BP protein and in view of the teachings of Schaffhausen who teaches monoclonal antibodies to N-terminal peptides (see page 362) it would have been obvious to make a monoclonal antibody to any residues at the N-terminus and it would be obvious that the antibody induce apoptosis. Therefore the technical feature is not a contribution over the prior art. Accordingly the groups set forth below are not so linked as to form a single general concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

In accordance with 37 CFR 1.499, applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single invention to which the claims must be restricted.

It is noted that claims 5-6, and 11 are directed to non-statutory subject matter and will not be included in the restriction. It is not clear whether "use" is a process, manufacture, composition of matter or some other item that is not one of the statutory categories of invention.

Group I, claim(s) claims 1-4, 7, 8-9, 12, drawn to an antibody, hybridoma, compositions, and kits.

Group II, claim(s) 10, drawn to a method of producing a monoclonal antibody by fusion.

2. The inventions listed as Groups I-II do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, they lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: As set forth above in view of the teachings from Parker and Schaffhausen the groups are not so linked as to form a single general concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because the technical feature shared by Groups I-II is not special.

The technical feature of Group I is an antibody and the technical feature of Group II is a method of making an antibody by fusion.

Inventions I and II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the antibody of Group I can be made by a materially different method such as recombinant means in addition to the materially different method of Group II.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art because of their recognized divergent subject matter and different searches in the patent literature, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

4. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(I).
